RE: RCS

RCS first began working with ValeFresh Limited (formerly Primafruit Limited) in August 2006. They have always adopted a tailor made approach to our business, listening to our needs and making the necessary changes that work best for us and providing us with the right people for the right jobs. They appreciate that every business is different and as such will have different ways of working.

They are available during extensive working hours and ensure all administration and staffing issues are dealt with promptly. They proactively seek to resolve them within our agreed time scales.

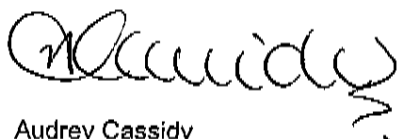

RCS have proven to be an asset to our business. Their staff are motivated and can be relied upon to be flexible with their working hours to suit the company's needs. RCS are respectful towards our business.

Management visits are scheduled weekly, during which time RCS ensure staff are performing to their best abilities. Regular reviews take place with the staff, in line with our company requirements.

RCS are a very professional business and their team is dedicated to make any improvements we see fit. RCS recognise they are a service provider and therefore ensure they do not get complacent in their efforts.
